Case 39

OADDL 09091080

Pot-Bellied Pig (Sus scrofa)

Timothy A. Snider, DVM, PhD, DACVP
Oklahoma State University

Permission granted only for viewing on SEVPAC website.
17 year old spayed female pot bellied pig

Right sinonasal mass
  - Small, insignificant at nostril; some discharge
  - Significant dyspnea; interfered with eating

Weight loss
Biopsy superficial

Permission granted only for viewing on SEVPAC website.
Morphologic Diagnosis:

Nasal: Squamous cell carcinoma
Case Follow-Up

- FA Surgery/Medicine Team Declared Tumor Unresectable
- Chemotherapy and radiation options were discussed, but ultimately not elected.
- Patient discharged to home care
- Supportive care
- Died naturally some months later
- Lost to follow up. No necropsy performed.
- Metastatic disease presumed.

Permission granted only for viewing on SEVPAC website.
Neoplasia of any type
  - URT/LRT
  - Cutaneous
  - Reproductive
  - Renal

Intact females
  - Endometrial hyperplasia with/without pyometra
  - Vaginal/Uterine leiomyomas/leiomyosarcomas

Degenerative joint disease/Osteoarthropathies

Permission granted only for viewing on SEVPAC website.
Acknowledgements

- Dr. Katie Simpson, Internist
- OADDL Histology
  - Curtis, Ashley, Eron
- Oklahoma State University: Travel/CE Support

Permission granted only for viewing on SEVPAC website.