

Best Practices in Veterinary Clinical Trials Symposium

April 20 2024
10am EST	Welcome
10:10 am	PETSORT reporting guidelines: how to design a study that will meet the guidelines and how to clearly and concisely communicate results for publication Annette O'Connor, BVSC, MVSC, DVSC, FANZCVSC Chair, Department of Large Animal Clinical Sciences Professor of Epidemiology Michigan State
11:10 - 11:30 am	Introduction to the AVMA Veterinary Clinical Trials Registry Ed Murphey, DVM, PhD, DACVS Associate Director, Education and Research, AVMA
11:30 am - 12:30 pm	Of Mice and Men: Working in Research at the Intersection of Veterinary Clinical Trials and Lab Animal Medicine Rebecca A. Krimins, DVM, MS Medical Director, Express Radiology Research Lab Medical Director, Veterinary Clinical Trials Network at Johns Hopkins University
12:30pm-1:30pm	Lunch Break

1:30pm-2:30pm	Keep It Simple - Practical strategies for implementing a fit-for-purpose Quality Management System in veterinary clinical research studies Renee C. Frey, BS, MBA Senior Director of Quality Assurance, ACI Biosciences
2:30-3:30 pm	FDA Consumer Complaints Process–Case Studies Katie Proia, DVM FDA Center for Veterinary Medicine Veterinary Medical Officer David Rotstein, DVM, MPVM, Dipl. ACVP FDA Center for Veterinary Medicine Consumer Safety Officer & Vet-LIRN Liaison
3:30-3:45 pm	Afternoon Break
3:45pm-4:45pm	What is Informed Owner Consent? Kate Creevy, MS, DVM, DACVIM Professor, Small Animal Clinical Sciences, Texas A&M and Chief Veterinary Officer, Dog Aging Project
4:45-5:30 pm	Are client-owned animals appropriate for ‘First in Canine (or Feline)’ studies? Dottie Brown, MPH, DVM VP Science & Healthcare Innovation Mars Veterinary Healthcare
5:30pm	Close